Back to the Shire for a run and didn't they all come out of the woodwork. It was great to see a large pack assemble for a "bush" run at the park opposite the newly constructed 4 storey mega carpark behind the Doy Thai. Great weather, great pack – hard to beat.

Run 1688 – Dundee's Sutherland Bash

One could ask whether the shortened run was to make up for a long run last week ??

As the hare Dundee had volunteered to TM his own run....(an offer too good to refuse, given the likely twists and turns of a bush run)...I had to return the favour and write this report... although it has to be said that Dundee usually does hare, TM, run reporter, and often scribes for his own runs and RA if he gets a chance....one way (the only way?) to ensure that he gets good reviews....but I digress, with a paragraph already taken of your valuable reading time and we haven't even got to the start of the run yet....

It was a healthy looking pack (in numbers at least)...with the runners sent off with a wave of the hare's hand in roughly the right direction while the walkers stayed back to be given some gems of wisdom/sufficiently loopy instructions to be able to stay on the trail...

Spini led the runners down the first on-back (no, you don't need new reading glasses, Spini is in training, coached on-line (presumably) by CB)....giving just enough time for the hare/TM (I will use the latter term only for the remainder of this report to save on ink) to catch us up so he could guide/mislead us for the rest of the run.

Curtseying was already calling for bush (you have to give him credit for being consistent/persistent (and insert whatever other words you want to here...I think he only complains so he gets a mention))....and wouldn't believe the TM wasn't taking the first opportunity to dive into it. Instead we ventured a little further on the hollowed tarmac of Sutherland before swinging left on to a pipeline.....

A fork in the road was too much for the decision making capacities of the pack...so Squatting, Cold Duck and CB lead one lot up the path while Merkin, Dubya and dog led another lot down the (correct) path....

Up some rocks with Blondie moving in leaps and bounds while Rabbit and Bingo were taking more age-appropriate steps. Loaner and Lantana/Coming Anyway (you decide what is a Rose by any other name) were waiting at the top of what proved to be an on-back....

A few more twists (I know you are anxious to get to the bucket), with Sir Les all shook up from his trip on the Elvis train to Parkes.

Meanwhile the walkers were doing loops in the bushland... with Dirty testing her new lungs and Powerhouse testing his new heart....and Sniffer, Moa and Grenade testing Goon's ability to walk and listen at the same time. Brockie was doing circuits with a whole Panorama of walkers including Doc, Dish, Slotcard, Stopcock, QR, Taxing, Goldie, Cannon, Ringless, Bowerbird, Brazilian, Thong and Venus. There was a detour to the cemetery for some.... perhaps booking a spot for the hash plots.... before making it back to the bucket and the dulcet tones of the stand-in RA....

CIRCLE UP!!

We were greatly honoured that Loan Arranger kindly accepted the offer to run the circle this week and then immediately delegated the responsibility of the "history" of the area to Cold Duck. Cold Duck's eyes went wide, and his mouth opened in threat of protest, but then dutifully got on to his phone and reported the following interesting (and little known) facts about Sutherland

- Most probably named after Forby Sutherland, who sailed with Capt Cook, and died of consumption on the evening of 30 April 1770 while the ship was anchored in the Bay and was buried ashore at Kurnell the following morning. Sutherland was an able seaman and also the ship's poulterer (which meant he prepared game birds for the table, including for instance those shot by Joseph Banks and Lieutenant Gore)
- Sutherland Oval was the first home of the Sharks in 1967, when Cold Duck played against Steve Rogers and let him score a few tries
- Sutherland is home of many celebrities and famous nobs - including ET (and his schlong) and Stuart Clark. Val Morgan CEO Damian Keogh says there's two reasons people live in The Shire. "The main way is you get born there and never leave and the second is you get lured there by a partner," he said.

Run Report Summary

It was wonderful to have C.B. back to provide a run report. She has been secretly training with Spini in the heat of Vietnam, to prepare themselves for the gruelling Botany Bay hash runs they will encounter this year. For CB, this run was a “warm up” and her advanced training had made this run seem a little short – but she didn’t realise that Dundee was just trying to compensate for last weeks Malabar Marathon. CB said the run was well marked, scenic and made her go up (a lot) and then down (also a lot) – but the up’s and down’s compensated each other and she ended up in the same place – score 8.7!

Visitors

We were delighted to welcome a large contingent of visitors this week – who must have caught wind of the B2H3 loyalty program and Hash points. Venerated visitors included

Bren Gun – who is still trying to get his head around the B2H3 Visitor program

Carpet Burn – Secretly training in the heat of Vietnam

Coming Anyway - who will be soon heading to Tamworth for boot scooting with LA and SS

Brazilian – who Merkin will still not allow to join the club

Dubya – Birthday Boy

Thong – Drivy Drivy so no drinky drinky

Powerhouse – Look fit and terrific, ready for 2019

Curtseying – Has thrown his golfing hand out with overuse (ask him) so needs an outlet for his excess exuberance.

BADGES

Three more over-achievers were acknowledged this evening – all great contributors to our Club. Many thanks for all your hard work over the years.

Prickette of the Week

Sniffer was nominated by Goon, for initially walking with him, and then urging him to wait for the rest of the pack – so she had someone else to talk with.

Moa Goa was nominated by Goon, for telling him that she threw her hip out when she tried to mount a Croatian Stallion with Poddy. Her hip was never the same.

Spinifex was nominated for emerging from her secret running training camp in Vietnam and leading the pack home.

Prick of the Week

Goon - for not providing Sniffer a talking partner of sufficient quality to keep her the slightest bit interested

Doc – for requesting that the next pub we go to has a jumping castle

Winners – Spinifex & Doc

LAUGHS FOR THE DAY :)

UP & DOWN SEX

At a Senior Citizen's luncheon, an elderly gentleman and an elderly lady struck up a conversation and discovered that they both loved to fish. Since both of them were widowed, they decided to go fishing together the next day.

The gentleman picked the lady up, and they headed to the river to his fishing boat and started out on their adventure. They were riding down the river when there was a fork in the river, and the gentleman asked the lady, "Do you want to go up or down?"

All of a sudden the lady stripped off her shirt and pants and made mad passionate love to the man right there in the boat ! When they finished, the man couldn't believe what had just happened, but he had just experienced the best sex that he'd had in years.

They fished for a while and continued on down the river, when soon they came upon another fork in the river. He again asked the lady, "Up or down?"

There she went again, stripped off her clothes, and made wild passionate love to him again.

This really impressed the elderly gentleman, so he asked her to go fishing again.

She said yes and there they were the next day, riding in the boat when they came upon the fork in river, and the elderly gentleman asked, "Up or down?"

The woman replied, "Down."

A little puzzled and disappointed, the gentleman guided the boat down the river when he came upon another fork in the river and he asked the lady, "Up or down?"

She replied, "Up."

This really confused the gentleman, so he asked, "What's the deal? Yesterday, every time I asked you if you wanted to go up or down you made mad passionate love to me. Now today, nothing!"

She replied, "Well, yesterday I wasn't wearing my hearing aid and I thought you said the choices were fuck or drown."
