Run 1706 – 20 May 2019

Hare – Merkin

Hareline:

1707	27 May 19	Grenade	Ramsgate – Intersection Hotel
1708	3 Jun 19	Doc	Zio Pino Pizzeria, 930 Botany Road, Mascot
1709	10 Jun 19	Bingo	Public Holiday
1710	17 Jun 19	Moa Goa	Woollooware Golf Club
1711	24 Jun 19	Goon	TBA

We planned to visit Shark Park hot on the heels of a surprising upset over the weekend – who would have thought that Manly could win?

The open car park offered an on-site “Return and Earn” (we should circle up at one each week), direct access to the Woollooware marshes and dumping site, and access to the home of Sharkies and mid-week specials in the Locker room. It should be noted that these “specials” did not include the woof of Decorub and Deep Heat in a steamy roof amidst a bunch of sweaty half-naked men recovering from an intense training session – but, instead, offered a few pasty looking pot-bellied blokes playing poker and wishing they could light up a ciggy. Still a great place for an On On – thanks Merkin.

Run 1706 – Merkin – Sharkies

A scrappy map with a few lines, faint or no names to mark the streets, and a potentially chaos-causing loop at the beginning – was what the cheerful (have you ever seen Merkin otherwise?) hare handed the hopeful TM.

Out of the carpark skipped Dundee, taking the keenest of the bunch across at the traffic lights at Captain Cook Drive (by this time he had broken into a run), and on to the first (longer than usual if you know your Hash stats) on-back of the night. Dubya refused to join them....claiming brotherly duties of keeping Thong company.

A few curses (about the hare of course) were muttered as Joker led the pack back....eventually into Woollooware Road and Taywood St....where the walkers (held back by the hare so they didn't have to work too hard by doing the first on-back) were ambling along the road. Birthday girl (she is young by hash standards) Brazilian was trying (in vain) to show her dog how to walk on a lead. Hannibal, Doc and Stopcock were discussing matters of politics/food/wine/nothing (select your own option, I was not in earshot).

Moa and Sniffer were showing Twin Tower solidarity, while QR, Grenade and Slotcard were workshopping next week's run. Goldie, Taxing and Brockie were taking everything in their stride. Grewsome was shepherding birthday boy Cameron (who actually chose to spend his birthday at hash....family tradition or brainwashing?) along with his arm in a sling.

A few streets later (I am sure you don't want a step by step rundown and I can't remember that long ago anyway), Goon was running out of puff and opted for a shortcut down Wayanbah St, where the pack was venturing back from a I'd-better-put-something-here-like-an-on-back by the hare. Cold Duck was keen to get back his trophy room at Sharkies so also turned, with Squatting close behind.

Along Croyden St and then the Kingsway to a check on the Esplanade where a local couple (about Hash age) out for a romantic stroll were almost bowled over by the pack looking for trail....Dundee was looking to add more than 9.2 km (he later claimed to have done) by heading south (to where, he only knows). Bingo was still powering away....later boasting that she did not need the TM as she was in training for the Sutherland to Surf

North along the Esplanade with a full moon beam-catching on the waters....and along the Esplanade and along the Esplanade....to a breath-catching check which turned the pack inland....apart from Pig and Scotch Mist who instead decided they wanted more Esplanade before taking the long route (the only one left) around Cronulla Golf Course. Meanwhile Loaner could only manage a run from Woolooware station after at big weekend with his mates.

A couple of checks were not enough to keep the pack together down Hume St then Sturt Road. Sir Les, Rabbit and Short'n'Curly kindly (albeit unintentionally) did the last on-back of the night (down, and so by Hash logic up again, a hill) to save the TM and Blondie from straining ourselves too much. Venus, Hellismellher and Doublebangher appeared from Captain Cook Drive....with tales of a rising planet and werewolves of London.....

Into the carpark of Sharkies where the P-platers outnumbered those queuing to Return and Earn.....and the pack size (large if you need me to spell it out) marked that it must be a shire run....

CIRCLE UP!!

When we meet at the home of the Sharks – it is good to learn of their deep and rich history. As we all know there is no-one on earth better qualified to impart this knowledge than our eminently qualified RA – Hannibal – read on

The Sutherland Sharks are an underperforming team in the NRL. They have won 3 wooden spoons in 1967,1968 and 2014. Flouting the rules is the standard.

The Shire propaganda machine, Visit the Shire, made up the following fiction about the team;

The Cronulla-Sutherland Sharks entered the elite New South Wales National Rugby League (NSWNRL) competition in 1967, playing their first game against the Eastern Suburbs Roosters at the Sydney Showground, Moore Park. It marked their first victory and the beginning of a Club now recognised and respected throughout the sporting world.

- The Sharks possess an insatiable hunger and a resolute belief to achieve their goals while holding honesty, belief, respect, teamwork, fun and accountability at the core of all of actions.
- Their vision is to Change the Game.
- They are the catalyst for positive social change and it is their mission to create outstanding experiences.
- They are more than just a football club. (they also host a “return and earn” machine)

The Barrel Polka and "Roll Out the Barrel", is a song which became popular worldwide during World War II. It is the tune to 'Up Up Cronulla', the national anthem of the Shire.

The polka became famous around the world. In June 1939, "Beer Barrel Polka", was number one on the Hit Parade. It is possible the reason for the rapid spread and popularity was due to the occupation of Europe by Nazi Germany, and the movement of thousands of troops, bringing this catchy tune with them. The tune arrived in the Shire in 1946 and is loved by all the Shire folk.

Run Report Summary

This week Sir Les accepted the honour of Circle Run Reviewer – and relished the opportunity to dissect the run street by street, turn by turn. He was quite upbeat, despite the fact that both his and Merkin’s team lost over the weekend. There was far too much to write down – but below I have try to capture his report’s essence.

- It was the best run from the Sharkies that still resides in his “living memory”.
- Next time Merkin sets a run, Sir Les kindly offered to bring along some chalk – as he assumed that there was a gyprock shortage in the Shire and it was hard to find.
- He thought it was a “flat run”, with the exception of one hill. This observation lead to a few murmuring comments and lead Merkin and many of the pack runners to conclude that maybe Sir Les wasn’t actually on trail.

Then he awarded the run 9/10 – which is a good score for someone who probably wasn’t on trail.

Visitors

It is always great to have visitors and this week was no exception. It was a great honour this week to welcome

- Stringbean (founding father and golfer extraordinaire - jah),
- Bedpan (former B2H3’r who must have forgotten her walking shoes) and
- Keith.

Always great to have visitors!!

Birthdays

This week we celebrated a couple of very important Birthdays -

Brazilian – who came to the hash to top-off 2 weeks of ongoing celebrations for her birthday

Cameron – who brought his broken collarbone alone to celebrate his 10th birthday with his fellow hashers. Moving into double figures is a great milestone, and the club was pleased to be part of it.

Prickette of the Week

Brazilian – For forgetting to tell Merkin to arrange the biscuits, cheese, nibblies and dips for the weary pack when they returned from his run

Scotch Mist – For not bringing a birthday cake for Cameron’s 10th – as it turned out he had had plenty of b’day cake over the weekend.

Venus – for being a voyeur – hiding in the bushes with Hellismellher and Doublebanger. Although details of this nomination are a little sketchy, we understand that it wasn’t as bad as everyone presumed and some even thought it could have been worse.

Prick of the Week

Grewsome – Taking poor Scotch mist all the way out to the Rose Hill Racecourse to the Caravan show on the wrong week. I’m sure he was doing reconnaissance – working out the best way to get there.

Loaner – for abandoning Squatting and having a boy’s only sleepover with three of his old mates. From all reports, they had a great time, with music, old stories, plenty of food and grog, a bit of slap and tickle, some rolling around in the hay etc etc – but it couldn’t have been that bad as Loaner was still upright, and walking without a limp or bow legs.

Winners – Grewsome and Scotch Mist

LAUGHS FOR THE DAY :) -

UCLA STUDY

A study conducted by UCLA's Department of Psychiatry has revealed that the kind of face a woman finds attractive on a man can differ depending on where she is in her menstrual cycle.

For example:

If she is ovulating, she is attracted to men with rugged and masculine features.

However, if she is menstruating or menopausal, she tends to be more attracted to a man with duct tape over his mouth and a spear lodged in his forehead while he is on fire.

No further studies are expected.

Miss Beatrice

Miss Beatrice, the church organist, was in her eighties and had never been married. She was admired for her sweetness and kindness to all. One afternoon the pastor came to call on her and she showed him into her quaint sitting room. She invited him to have a seat while she prepared tea.

As he sat facing her old Hammond organ, the young minister noticed a cut-glass bowl sitting on top of it. The bowl was filled with water, and in the water floated, of all things, a condom!

When she returned with tea and scones, they began to chat. The pastor tried to stifle his curiosity about the bowl of water and its strange floater, but soon it got the better of him and he could no longer resist.

"Miss Beatrice", he said, "I wonder if you would tell me about this?" pointing to the bowl.

"Oh, yes," she replied, "Isn't it wonderful? I was walking through the park a few months ago and I found this little package on the ground. The directions said to place it on the organ, keep it wet and that it would prevent the spread of disease. Do you know I haven't had the flu all winter."

A Happy Life

FIVE RULES FOR MEN TO FOLLOW TO A HAPPY LIFE:

- 1. It's important to have a woman, who helps at home, who cooks from time to time, cleans up and has a job.
- 2. It's important to have a woman, who can make you laugh.
- 3. It's important to have a woman, whom you can trust and who doesn't lie to you.
- 4. It's important to have a woman, who is good in bed and who likes to be with you.
- 5. It's very, very important that these four women do not know each other.
