Hare - Doc

Hareline:

1709	10 Jun 19	Bingo	Royal Carlton Hotel, Railway Parade, Carlton, Public Holiday
1710	17 Jun 19	Moa Goa	Woolooware Golf Club
1711	24 Jun 19	Goon	Surry Hills, Strawberry Hills Hotel – near Central Station. Check out some of the light rail – before it opens in 202?. Not much parking – so train is a good option
1712	1 July 19	Blondie	TBA
1713	8 July 19	Dundee	TBA

Another cold night greeting us at the Bayside Council Carpark in Mascot behind the newly named Zio Pino restaurant (Previously known as Zia Pina – home of the Mascot mothers). The icy winds from Ramsgate had made their way north – and ensured the pack was well rugged up before heading off into the Mascot wilderness. After the run we headed to the warmth inside and feasted on some lovely Pizzas and other Italian food, and where we realised that we had been mispronouncing some of our Hash names for ages. We unreservedly apologise to Sniever and Ticklay for this mistake.

Run 1708 – Doc – Zio Pino - Botany

I arrived in the car park with the bucket and time to spare - that was a mistake!

After re-locating the car to the designated bucket space (much appreciated I might add), I was approached by a limping Goon asking if I would be TM as Tickle was so ill she hadn't played Golf on Sunday! I realised the severity of the situation and agreed.

There was much huddling in the carpark, trying to keep warm, with the runners only removing excess clothing at the very last minute. Fortunately I had my gloves with me and these were NOT removed.

A small but select pack headed off, with Squaw asking if there were any short cuts as she was waiting for Loaner to arrive. Unfortunately I wasn't really in a position to answer as the pack had already set off, but I did mention that I was sure they would catch us!

The trail headed down some residential streets of Mascot, before an on back on the corner of O'Riordan Street, which caught out the front runners and Goon. The trail went through a park and back down to a check on the corner of O'Riordan Street, less than 100m from the on-back! Dundee made his customary mad dash through the traffic and Rabbit tried to follow, but was promptly called back by Blondie as a car almost turned the corner into her. The trail went through a hotel and new buildings before splitting to a runners and walkers trail. Shortly after there was a mad woman's loop which I kindly offered the short cut to Goon. The trail headed to a check and trail was then found heading through a carpark (although Sir Les did disappear in the opposite direction) and back to the corner at the start of the loop. By this time Goon was well ahead.

We headed down more laneways and though the underpass by the Canal where Dundee decided to empty his bladder by the homeless beds! We headed through an industrial park where Pig decided to relieve himself and the hare confused Bingo by marking the trail which should have been to an on back but only led 10m to a locked gate. Up to this point the pack was pretty well together, however began to spread out. We went through a new part of Mascot and past the station. At this point the stand-in TM got a bit confused by the map and forgot to mark off an on-back (sorry Squaw and Loaner).

The check at the corner of John St and O'Riordan St held up those that were not playing chicken with the traffic. The trail went along Coward Street, past some interesting eateries and past a large park on the right. Blondie tried to confuse the TM by telling me that there was an on-back from the check on Forester Street. As the map had been so clear up to that point I didn't believe her and we arrived back at the bucket without further ado to find Tickle in long pants and Merkin who had run the trail in reverse.

Squaw and Loaner arrived back just a few minutes later.

Great run Doc, clear map, without which I would have had no idea at all where I was. The hare also provided me with Gyprock and a Torch. Thank you!

Map attached if you want to turn it round!

CIRCLE UP!!

This week we learnt about one of the critical pieces of throbbing architecture that keeps our city alive and functioning – and reminds us all of the wonders of engineering.

Tonight's run is in Mascot and in particular I am looking forward to the On On at Zio Pina Italian Restaurant. That turned my mind to one of the great points of interest in Mascot which is Sewage Pumping Station 38.

Sewage Pumping Station 38 is a heritage-listed sewerage pumping station located on General Holmes Drive in Mascot. It was added to the New South Wales State Heritage Register on 18 November 1999.

SPS 38 was the first pumping station constructed to serve the newly installed Southern Western Suburbs Ocean Outfall Sewer, SWOOS No.1, which superseded the Botany-Rockdale Sewage Farm (ceased 1911). This action was the product of a Parliamentary Inquiry held between 1905-1908, in which it was decided to divert the sewage of the southern, western and Illawarra suburbs from the Botany and Rockdale Sewage Farms to discharge into an appropriate location being the ocean near Long Bay.

It is a representative example of a simple, robust and well-proportioned Federation Free Style industrial building, the architectural expressions of which can be found in the structural detailing of the facade, superb brickwork, and roof forms. In addition, the mechanical components housed within the building have potential industrial archaeological value. Its architectural detailing makes a strong contribution to the visual catchment of the airport precinct and Botany area.

It is heartwarming to think many of us have 'run' or passed through SPS 38, sometimes on a daily basis, without even knowing.

Run Report Summary

Chaos reigned before the run – as Tickle had been struck down by the mid-week lurgy, leading to Scotch Mist taking control of the TM's chalk, and therefore (by historical connection) also accepting the associated TM tasks. On the last stretch home, your humble scribe was anointed as Circle reporter – so here goes.

- After undertaking deep research into the development of the run, it was found to be a “committee effort”. Dish took the left side of the trail, Doc took the right and Blondie lead the group – giving instruction and barking orders from the front. It was suggested that a fourth position “Sweeper” also be included next time, to check Blondies instructions were carried out correctly, ensure consistently and check for any gaps in the trail.
- It was great to be back in Mascot – although the shop around the corner of the car park with the sign “Do you have a problem with Fleas” was a concern.
- The run took us through the bustling streets of “Old Mascot” – reaching the Ricketty Street Bridge over the Alexander Canal, where Dundee thoughtfully ran passed the “Rough sleepers” area before peeing against a factory wall and filling the Canal.
- Then we passed through the hustle and bustle of New Mascot – the shopping mall, train station, residential towers, and people wandering around everywhere not talking to each other but glued to their phones.
- The scribe thanks Scotch Mist (temp TM) and Blondie who guided the slow moving back marker/s home through the Mascot maze.

The run was awarded 9/10 – for introducing us to the new and exciting developments in Mascot. (not for the temperature).

Birthdays

HAPPY BIRTHDAY – SLOTCARD!!!!

While we were celebrating Slotcard's birthday one of the pack asked what Birthday she was celebrating. Just as she answered a plane went over – drowning out here response – I think she said 39.

Prickette of the Week

Scotch Mist – For rugging up before the run, when it actually would have been a balmy warm evening in Scotland

Bingo – for calling “on” then not calling “on” (seemingly being confused between the different arrows set by the hare pack) – but then admitting that she knew a “Hard on” when she saw one.

Sniffer and Goldmark – For getting home at 2:10 am after the Thirsty run in the city last Thursday – it must have been along run?

Prick of the Week

Hannibal – For holding the circle under the Flight Path

Stopcock – for accompanying Sniffer and Goldmark on Thursday at Thirsty (to make sure he didn't miss out on any fun)

Winners – Sniffer, Goldmark and Stopcock

LAUGHS FOR THE DAY :) -

Good Deed

A man appeared before St. Peter at the Pearly Gates.

"Have you ever done anything of particular merit?" St. Peter asked.

"Well, I can think of one thing," the man offered.

"Once, on a trip to GyMEA down in Sutherland Shire, I came upon a gang of bikers, who were threatening a young woman. I directed them to leave her alone, but they wouldn't listen. So, I approached the largest and most heavily tattooed biker and smacked him in his face, kicked his bike over, ripped out his nose ring, and threw it on the ground.

I yelled, "Now, back off!! Or I'll kick the ____ out of all of you!"

St. Peter was impressed, "When did this happen?"

"Just a couple minutes ago..."

Golf Advice

Here is an actual sign posted at a golf club in Sidney ,British Columbia.

1. Back straight, knees bent, feet shoulder width apart.
2. Form a loose grip.
3. Keep your head down!
4. Avoid a quick back swing.
5. Stay out of the water.
6. Try not to hit anyone.
7. If you are taking too long, let others go ahead of you.
8. Don't stand directly in front of others.
9. Quiet please...while others are preparing.
10. Don't take extra strokes.

Well done. Now flush the urinal, go outside, & tee off

Password.

A woman was helping her husband set up his computer, and at the appropriate point in the process, she told him that he would now need to enter a password. Something he could remember easily and will use each time he has to log on.

The husband was in a rather amorous mood and figured he would try for the shock effect to bring this to his wife's attention. So when the computer asked him to enter his password, he made it plainly obvious to his wife that he was keying in.....

P...
E..
N...
I..
S...

His wife fell off her chair laughing when the computer responded with:

***PASSWORD REJECTED. NOT LONG ENOUGH***
