Many thanks to Goldmart for putting her hand up to set a run at short notice and bringing us all back to the northern outskirts of our hashing territory – Coogee. Aply assisted by Goon and Short n Curly the run was prepared, the venue notified, the trail planned. Thanks to the many hashers dragged themselves north after a huge weekend and all the excitement of the weekend in Kangaroo Valley. A sprinkling of rain meant some of the trail was a little hard to find, but the pack made it home, ready for a lively circle and the Monday specials at the Diggers. Thanks Goldmart for getting this ready at such short notice.

Run 1716 – Goldmart & Goon – Coogee Diggers

Goldmart gathered the supporting troops (Goon and Short n Curley) to set a run around the Coogee Basin. The focus of the run was to keep the pack together and allow the TM (with bad knees) to keep up with some of the back markers. A series of 3 running checks (aka mad women's loops) were combined with a running on-back, a series of traditional checks, a number of cheeky on-backs and magnificent run along the ocean beach to give all and sundry a "Taste of Coogee".

The trail stayed close to the start (and bucket location) and wove in and out of the alleys and lanes of Coogee. The first loop over the killer hill behind the bucket location, took the runners through a park, and up Oberon street, while the walkers (with umbrellas) short-cutted past the new sewage pipe at Maymott street on towards the steps that lead to the first mad women's loop at Howard Street. The walkers then headed off into a vortex and were never seen again until the bucket.

Meanwhile, your TM and Cold Duck took refuge at the start of loop 1, while the front runners started stretching out. Then, it was on to the first on-back – which lured Cold Duck off the real trail to the left of the run. We continued around St Pauls street in the direction of the Ritz, to a confounding check that had the pack nearly back-tracking.

The pack located trail behind themselves and traversed the old tram way to a Check at Coogee Public School. Then it was down the maze of lanes at the back of Goon and Tickle's place – which included the second mad woman's loop. It was here that Dundee took refuge and hid behind a tree. Back at the top of Powell Street – we had a "Hold Check" and all the runners re-assembled. This gave them a chance to catch their breaths and appreciate the wondrousness of the run. Then it was on to a check and back to Mount Street to enjoy the running on-back that took the pack up one side of the road and then back down the other. Pig enjoyed watching the pack run back on itself – while he calmly crossed the road at the bowling club.

We continued down Dolphin Street for the third mad women's loop – which proved far too much for Sir Les, Blondie and Pig. They just could not believe that they could be stuck in a hash vortex and slung themselves off into another orbit – that ended up at the beach. Sadly the rain had washed the trail from the brick paving – and it was hard to find the true path and true light. These runners made their way home and were found safe and sound at the bucket.

Meanwhile, Dundee, Bingo, Merkin, Cold Duck, Growsome and the TM, wiggly woggled through the streets and lanes near the Havelock Street Bridge, to find their way home – only omitting the final loop that was really only designed for the non short-cutting champions in the club.

The vortex dissipated at the bucket – where the walkers appeared, and the front running pack joined them. When the "back of the pack" arrived to complete the set, everyone was under cover, drinking beer and eating the nibblies that Gold mart had prepared. They all waited for the circle with bated breath.

At the end of the run, the pack knew that they had calf and butt muscles and were looking forward to taking them home for a radox bath! Thanks Goldmart !

CIRCLE UP!!

Hannibal keeps his spirits up by making up all sorts manufactured and contorted misinformation about every run, every week. We love it – thanks Hannibal!

Since the dawn of time and certainly since the “crack of dawn”, Coogee and B2H3 have been intertwined in a very attractive and intimate way.

Many fine B2H3 members have called Coogee home.

KIZZME and DAME NELLIE set many runs there, skilfully setting trails through parts not many NORMAL people visited.

DR HOOK courted CB FROM CHINA there a lot.

I, HANNIBAL LECTOR unfortunately had to witness some of that. That is why I drank a lot and came home late! That's what mates do!

GOLDMARK our joint hare more recently calls Coogee home. She is full of spunk with good run setting ideas and will chalk one up from time to time.

Our other joint hare GOON along with TM extraordinaire TICKLE; love the COOGEE hills and seaside atmosphere and have also been known to set runs in the Coogee area.

So, let's give a cheer to Coogee and thank our hares for a fine job.

Circle Run Report

This week Bingo was cajoled into giving the run report in the Circle. She took to this task with relish, and reported that

- She enjoyed the run
- It was quirky (which, I think, was a compliment)
- Sadly the rain made conditions somewhat wet – washing out some of the arrows
- There were lots of twist and turns – and she mentioned that there were times when she had no idea where she was (this comment attracted howls of laughter and some level of guffawing)
- She was pleased that the back was kept together (at least before the vortex)
- She couldn't remember a happier time in her life.

Bingo awarded the run “9.7” – which was high praise for last-minute run in wet conditions – thanks Bingo.

Prickette of the Week

Goldmart - For denigrating the beer by putting Ginger beer in it..

Goldmart - For taking her first steps of recovery on the weekend by taking advantage a poor young, handsome publican who bought her 2 free drinks and curled her toes.

Prick of the Week

Sir Les - For modelling a mankini on the weekend – that showed off his features and set the harriettes and local women’s groups atwitter. We expect to see highlights of this fashion display soon on the international news.

Dundee – for attracting a Wrass at the fish tank in Kangaroo Valley by pressing his nose to the glass and winking at it.

Cold Duck – for running in new shoes that were falling apart. Luckily he found some Duct tape in his car and was able to hold them together.

Winners – Goldmart & Sir Les

JOIN RABBIT ON THE BLOODY LONG WALK

SUNDAY 10TH NOVEMBER 2019

35K WALK FROM PIONEER PARK MALABAR TO HICKSON ROAD RESERVE, THE ROCKS TO RAISE FUNDS AND AWARENESS FOR MITOCHONDRIAL DISEASE.

Mitochondrial disease (mito) is a debilitating genetic disorder that robs the body's cells of energy, causing multiple organ dysfunction or failure and potentially death. The harsh facts:

- Mito affects 1 in 5000 people, making it the second most commonly diagnosed, serious genetic disease after cystic fibrosis
- One in 200 people, or more than 120,000 Australians, may carry genetic mutations that put them at risk for developing mito or other related symptoms such as diabetes, deafness or seizures during their lifetimes
- There are many forms of mitochondrial disease; it is highly complex and can affect anyone of any age
- There are no cures and few effective treatment

This is why The Bloody Long Walk is so important. Not only does the event raise awareness of this debilitating disease, it also raises vital funds to enable much-needed support to patients and their families and essential research into the prevention, diagnosis, treatment and cure of mitochondrial disorders.

IT WOULD BE GREAT TO HAVE SOME COMPANY ON THIS WALK SO IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN THIS CHALLENGE PLEASE LET ME KNOW.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, JUST GOOGLE THE BLOODY LONG WALK & CLICK ON THE SYDNEY EAST WALK.

A Canadian in NZ

A bloke walks into a bar in New Zealand and orders a shandy.

All the Kiwis sitting around the bar look up, expecting to see another Australian visitor.

The barman says, "You ain't from around here, are ya?"

The guy says, "No, I'm from Canada ."

The bartender says, "What do you do in Canada ?"

The guy says, "I'm a taxidermist."

The bartender says, "A tixidermist? What the hick is a tixidermist? Do you drive a tixi?"

"No, a taxidermist doesn't drive a taxi. I mount animals."

The bartender grins and yells,

"He's okay boys. He's one of us."

Old true story

WIFE: What would you do if I died? Would you get married again?
HUSBAND: Definitely not!
WIFE: Why not - don't you like being married?
HUSBAND: Of course I do.
WIFE: Then why wouldn't you remarry?
HUSBAND: Okay, I'd get married again.
WIFE: You would? (With a hurtful look on her face).
HUSBAND: (Makes audible groan).
WIFE: Would you live in our house?
HUSBAND: Sure, it's a great house.
WIFE: Would you sleep with her in our bed?
HUSBAND: Where else would we sleep?
WIFE: Would you let her drive my car?
HUSBAND: Probably, it is almost new.
WIFE: Would you replace my pictures with hers?
HUSBAND: That would seem like the proper thing to do.
WIFE: Would she use my golf clubs?
HUSBAND: No, she's left-handed.
WIFE: - silence - -
HUSBAND: F * ck.

Grandma

A Jewish grandma and her grandson are at the beach. He's playing in the water, she is standing on the shore not wanting to get her feet wet, when all of a sudden, a huge wave appears from nowhere and crashes directly onto the spot where the boy is wading. The water recedes and the boy is no longer there ..he was swept away.

The grandma holds her hands to the sky, screams and cries: Lord, my GOD, how could you? Haven't I been a wonderful grandmother? Haven't I been a wonderful mother? Haven't I kept a kosher home?

Haven't I given to charity? Haven't I lit candles every Friday night? Haven't I tried my very best to live a life that you would be proud of?

A voice booms from the sky, "All right already!"

A moment later another huge wave appears out of nowhere and crashes on the beach. As the water recedes, the boy is standing there. He is smiling and splashing around as if nothing had ever happened.

The voice booms again. "I have returned your grandson. Are you satisfied?"

She responds, "He had a hat."
