Run 1760: 10th August 2020

Hares: Short 'N Curly - Cronulla

Goon and Tickle - Coogee

Starters Gun

The doorman at the Cronulla Club assiduously collected Licence images and measured temperatures. For a Hare that had not laid an arrow, Short N Curly looked very relaxed.

Rain and drizzle all day, the hare triumvirate – Short N Curly, Goldmark and Dirty Weekend, were in the club, over a few bottles of wine, discussing the merits of bothering to set a run in such inclement weather. Yes, this was Sunday, the day before most people would contemplate laying down arrows but not these brilliant weather forecasters, who had far greater knowledge than the BoM and radar studies, deciding it was just going to be too wet.

Growsome volunteered for Trail Master and was passed a map. He wondered who was going to run with him. Dundee was damaged, Bingo was being a wet-weather Woose. Pig was complaining of knee problems, SLAP and Rabbit didn't show.

The usual walking group assembled, Stopcock, Sniffer, QR, Slotcard, Cannon Mouth, Bower Bird, Brockie, Grenade and Ringless; Merkin – still recovering from his coccyx misadventures, joined them. Most pulled on a layer or 2 against the wind, rain and cold but as expected Dirty Weekend did the Michelin-man protection with at least 5 layers!

South Run Report

Short N Curly's Short and Chaotic Cronulla Coastal Shuffle.

Escorted by the other two non-complainants – Hellsmellher and Doublebanger – Growsome set off laying trail for the walkers, which included those nominated above, following at a fast clip but not, apparently, the other walking talking group, who had decided not to follow trail because they never do anyway.

Heading south down and around Tonkin Park into a blustery southerly, around the Gunnamatta foreshore and into the park, squelching across the mud Pig, Bingo and Dundee found trail heading towards Bass and Flinders, before turning east towards the coast and the boardwalk.

It was here we encountered the walker talkers coming in the opposite direction, completely oblivious to the set trail but with eyes to the sky noticing Snickers and Anyway perched in their abode cheering the groups walking in different directions, just like in the past when they were members. Of particular note was the sighting of Slotcard (the blokes in the pub call her slutcard) with QR, which must have been nearly a kilometre from the club, amazing.

Arriving back we all commented on how well the run was set and thought it was so good that S 'N C should set another one next week. We gave Growsome nine 9/10

On On Dundee.

East Run Report

10 - 8 - 2020 TICKLE and GOON'S COOGEE CANTER.

The sun had shone and the stars were out as the energetic eastern B2H3 contingent set out to explore the undulating areas of Coogee. Tickle led the pack out in a south eastern direction from Memorial Park. Spini sprinted, Goldie galloped, Taxing trotted, Doc darted and Blondie bolted through the picturesque streets leading to the southern end of Coogee Beach.

Following Tickle the Pack pounded the promenade to Dolphin Point at the northern end of the beach and then headed west. Hannibal halted in Hill Street to photograph a block of units and then proceeded to reminiscence of time spent there sharing the pad with Dr. Hook. Goon introduced us to some of the locals along the way. Glen A Baker, Mel Gibson, Chris Hemsworth and Our Lady of the Fence Post aka "Rail Mary" to name a few. And Dish dawdled along contemplating the heritage listing of The Dish.

Goon gave his appraisal "the best run, the best food, the best wine and the best conversations ever" before heading home to be in bed by 9pm.

On On Dish

RA's Report

Coogee

Known for:

- Aboriginal name for either, "smelly seaweed", or "place where backpackers meet"
- Famous Coogee Bay Beer Garden where Backpackers get together to cause trouble
- You can get a lovely ice cream desert, with a topping of shit, at the Beer Garde
- Celina's nightclub at the same pub - has hosted nearly all Aussie bands and artists
- There was an Amusement Pier running out from the Beach - built in 1887 - destroyed by heavy surf in 1934
- Shark Arm murder case - a shark was caught and put in Coogee Aquarium in 1935. It regurgitated a human arm. Still owner of arm not known.

OnOn Cold Duck.
