South Run Report

Daffy Duck's Dawdling Dilemma

Which way will I send them to waddle this week, thinks Duck as he ponders the map. Away from his usual haunt – The Great Southern at St. Peters – where he has an understanding – I sent them clockwise last time so it's anti clockwise this time – how do I rotate them from The Crest? Dilemma!

Further complications occurred when the pub decided they wouldn't take 20 people from the same running group, even though we asked for separate tables of 10. So Dirty decided to book a table of ten under her name, which, not only has a very similar last name as that of the former booker but also has the same mobile number, except for the last digit, which varied by just one number as they were purchased at the same time. Offers were made from other members to book under their name but Sniffer took the initiative to move the On On to her favourite venue – the Taren Point Bowling Club, where they don't give a rat's.

The pack assembled on a freezing night outside the pub, all twenty minus Short N Curly, who had succumbed to an alternative virus to COVID 19 or maybe just thought it would be warmer in her abode so she missed the best run of the week. Didn't matter as it allowed Grewsome and siblings on the run to make sure we all ran to our extremes.

Out of the car park we headed across the Highway and left to an On Back, which sent us back to Tara Street and up to Kangaroo Point Road to a Check. Dundee, who lived down the bottom of the first hill for the first 24 years of his life, was well aware that the hill would only send us to Robvic Avenue and return to The Promenade. An interesting side note is that Robvic was named after the two daughters (Robyn and Victoria) of Reg Richards, the oyster lease king, who owned all the land from Kangaroo Point Road to Oyster Bay in that area, when Dundee lived there. In fact Oyster Bay was named such for that reason. Wow I bet you're overwhelmed to hear all that shit.

Trail was found at Young Street, where Sniffer and Climax once presided, to another On Back, before heading down a fire trail to The Promenade and another check, which found trail on The Esplanade, a circuitous route (don't you love circuitous roots), which took us back to The Promenade again and past the Duck/Dirty abode but no bloody halfway bucket cause Dirty couldn't be bothered or that's what Duck said.

Up the treacherous Box Road hill, which makes the Ninja Warrior hill look like a kindergarten excursion, although he did allow a slight excursion halfway up on Edward Street to an On Back. Across the Highway again to the Sylvania Heights sports fields and a right down to Garnet Road and a meandering along to the Bellingara Netball courts, Merkin was powering, making up for some missed weeks of athleticism. The whistle blowers weren't in situ so the pack headed back down to Box Road, where SLAP had shortcutted and checked out the next On Back, forcing the pack across the road and into the dirt, unlit, summer trail only track

Sir Les, eye bulging, decided he would lead the pack at this stage and created a quick pace through the jungle, passing the Sylvania High School to a small bridge over an even smaller creek, Sir Les, decided not to follow trail and headed back to Port Hacking Road, whilst the rest of the pack, minus a couple, decided that they weren't going to follow the arrows back towards Melbourne and SLAP had found trail heading up to Snowden Avenue then up through some walking pavements and the pub.

Excellent 8km run Duck. I would've awarded it at least a five but I know our more social (female) members would've given it a ten.

On On Dundee.

East Run Report

6.20pm Balmain Road, Lilyfield and under the cover of dark the B2H3ers began to emerge. Hannibal from his car parked in front of the Little Chilli Restaurant. Along Darling Road strolled Taxing and David as Ice Box and Hot Dick secured a park also outside the restaurant. Coming Anyway arrived via the L1 and Goldie finally made it to the run after being stuck behind a broken-down car in the CBD. Pig joined us tonight all the way from Heathcote (which has been described as the periphery of the B2H3universe).

Sometime after 6.30pm the enthusiastic group proceeded to follow Taxing through the grounds of Callan Park and along the foreshores of Iron Cove. They enjoyed the views across to Sisters Bay, Birkenhead Point, Half Moon Bay and Rodd Island. On through King George Park where the pack came to a sudden halt as a lot of movement in the water had caught their attention. After Doc announced it was not a croc and Blondie tried to photograph the "beast" they continued on through the quite back streets of Lilyfield. The home stretch found them on the temporary foot paths created by the West Connect construction.

Taxing had really gone all out when setting this run. Not only had she arranged for four Jumbo Jets to flyover she had found a place in King George Park where we could stand in front of the Sydney Harbour Bridge.

RA's Report Sylvania

I did info on Sylvania a few weeks ago when we had a run there.

So this week, I'm providing info on one of the most embarrassing features of the suburb, the unmemorable TV show, "Sylvania Waters"

- It aired in 1992 for only 6 months (wonder why ????)
- Dirty and I had been overseas for 4 weeks, came home and switched on the Box, and flicked around the channels. Came across this strange show with absolutely crap actors - of course it was Sylvania Waters (SW). We didn't watch any further episodes.
- It was the original "Reality" show on Australian TV.
- It featured Noeline and Laurie, a very well-off dysfunctional family, living in a million dollar water front home in SW, just up from Doltone House, 48 Macintyre Court actually. They had 3 sons - now all grown up with their own children.
- It was where the term "The Shire" first came into prominence. The bogans on the show used it regularly.
- It was a big hit in the UK, because they thought they were a typical Aussie family - my God!
- They moved up to the Gold Coast 10 odd years after the show, and apparently now live on a farm somewhere.

Lilyfield

- Was once a working-class suburb, but now "gentrified". ie. Wankers live here!
- Named after fields of Lilly's that were abundant in the area 100+ years ago
- Most notable Landmark is the old "Callan Park Hospital for the Insane". Hannibal spent most of his youth there. It's now the "Sydney College of the Arts". He doesn't go there anymore.
- A small suburb, only 7,000 residents

A great dunny read coming your way again....

- Was originally end of the line for the Light Rail.
- Home to Orange Grove Pub, where we have had many OnOns, and was the final stop on one of our pub crawls many years ago.
- Average home price $1.8 Million.
- It's in the heart of Tigers territory, a once great footy club. Dirty, is still dirty on the Tigers when they cheated to beat her Bunnies in 1969. Isn't that right Sir Les?

OnOn Cold Duck.
