Run 1768: 5th October 2020

Hares: Dundee - Woolooware

Spinifex - Greenwich

Starters Gun

The Walkers were early, Stopcock and Sniffer joined by Venus and Grenade. Bowerbird, looking spritely for her years of experience, was sporting short sleeves in preparation for the effort she was about to make.

Cannon Mouth thought he was there but wasn't sure. QR and Slotcard joined the table and waited patiently for the On Out to be called. Several noted that they were already being sent Photos of the East run hijinks as they had elected to have an even earlier start than the introduction of Daylight saving afforded them.

Merkin had herded the family at some point, Brazilian, Dubya and Thong joining us for OnOn.

South Run Report

Dodderly Dundee's Daylight Dawdle

First run of daylight saving, a beautifully warm day, excellent venue organised by Moa, big roll up, what could possibly go wrong? Well nothing really, except Ringless was checking out his money box for the dental bills. The Editress – see capital E just like Your Majesty, as if there was really only ever one – was deciding how to marry off her left and right knees to one another without creating a divorce, which would make her bow legged like Dr. Hook. If Hook could get his knees straight, he'd be taller than Pig.

Anyway, it was the silly old Hare's birthday so everyone was trying to be nice to the poor old bugger by offering gifts and talking loudly so the deafhead could hear, whilst giving him the finger behind his back. Failing eyesight and inability to print a readable map or draw one like Rabbit, meant the useless old prick had to act as Trail Master as well as setting the run so everyone was assured of returning to the Club, providing Alzheimer's hadn't set in.

He assured the pack that there were sufficient Checks and On Backs to ensure Cam and Andy didn't finish the run before everyone else made halfway, Bingo checked her watch, Duck blew his family call and we were off. Well sort of anyway as we only trundled about a hundred metres to the first Check, where, fortunately, Grewsome had taken the wrong road and the rest of his sprinters were told not to play with the traffic, so, with nobody checking anywhere else, the Hare was forced to offer a suggestion to Scotch Mist quietly "If I was checking I'd be checking up that street".

So she did and we did too and we all headed up Denman Road and down the next street to an On Back found first by Andy as he sprinted down the hill. Left to the trail, then right and right again to another On Back, before entering the first and only real bit of bush on the run but then I thought of Merkin and there was another big bit of Bush. Heading back towards the school Pig and Sir Les had taken the lead, being swiftly overtaken by Cam to another Check.

Rabbit was hopping along and complaining about plastic knees not being as good as calcium ones even though they were less painful, as we headed back up the hill towards Caringbah station and another Check, which Duck quickly found, taking us up to Kingsway. Seeing as how the normal traffic player was acting as TM, Duck assumed the mantle and disobeyed the red non walking man by flying across the six lanes, zig zagging through the traffic – Dundee was in awe as his regular tutoring was being rewarded.

Up into the Woolies shopping centre, the TM shortcutted Smeller, Banger and Scott, to be reunited once the pack had run around the block and entered Glen McGrath Oval – the boy from Narromine relocated to Caringbah. An On Back found Duck and Sir Les, with Pig, finding trail down and into De La Salle College then up to Port Hacking Road and another Check.

It was getting a bit dark at this stage so the TM gave an indication as to where the trail was set down past the swimming pool and through the usual walkway down to Burraneer Football Park, thence across to Kingsway, once again. The lights on Gannon's road ensured the pack was reassembled as we sprinted home with Doddery and Pig pretending they were 15 again by sprinting??? up Denman and back to the Club.

Good run Doddery, worth at least 2.5.
On On Dundee.

East Run Report

Spinifex's sinew stretching (fast) stroll around Greenwich

The pack assembled on Valleyview Crescent for an early 5pm start. Down the hidden steps on the opposite side of the street Spini led the group. Blondie, Doc, Goon, Tickle, Hannibal and Dish followed her through the tunnel and onto the Gore Creek walking track in the Lane Cove Bushland. Under River Road we went and along Gore Creek past Lillipilli Waterfall then across Bob Campbell Oval enjoying the local flora and fauna along the way.

Up a very steep path and we are back in suburbia. Hannibal found some of the street names interesting enough to take photos. Passing Ffrench Street (correct spelling), Seaman Street, Bent Lane and Carlotta Lane we continued on to find steps leading down onto the walking trail that follows Berry Creek. Passing through Greendale Park, Gore Cove Reserve and Holloway Reserve we next encountered the KILLER steps that take you to Vista Street. An aptly named street as the view took in the flags on top of the Harbour Bridge, Barangaroo, the CBD, Darling Harbour and the Anzac Bridge.

A pleasant (fast) stroll through the quiet streets of Greenwich and we arrived back at Spini's abode to find Goon stretched out on the lounge watching TV. Being Goon's return to B2H3 with his new knee he did a little short cutting. Lots of bubbles and beers then accompanied Spini's scrumptious sausage sizzle.

Thank you Spini for the scenic run around your home suburb and the great evening that followed.
OnOn Dish

RA's Report

Woolooware

Has two claims to fame:

- Woolooware Gold Club - home to that famous tall, flightless, Kiwi Bird called the Moa Goa. It is known to frequent the 19th Hole and hides under desks in the Admin. area.
- Home to the mighty gummy Sharks at their home ground in the suburb, just down the road from the Golf Club. The Sharks joined the Comp. in 1967, when they and Penrith were promoted from 2nd Division. Their first home ground was Sutherland Oval, next to Woronora Cemetery - we have run/walked past it many times. They moved to Woolooware in 1970 - the Stadium was originally called Endeavour Field, but it has always been known as Shark Park. The Sharks had to wait 49 years to win their first premiership in 2016 (although, they did win the Under 23's in 1975 - the Clubs first senior premiership which yours truly played in). Unfortunately, they won't be adding anything to their fairly empty trophy cabinet this year! One positive, they got into the Semi's while arch rivals the Dragons didn't - did they get the Wooden Spoon? And how embarrassing that the Sharks are sharing the Dragons home ground for a few years while the Sharks Leagues Club is renovated.

Greenwich

- Greenwich is an area frequented by Squatters - people that live in other people's homes without permission when the owners are overseas. Most of these owners are living in Countries such as Vietnam and China.
- Greenwich named after Greenwich in London, on the Thames River. Apparently, the Parramatta river was once known as the "The Thames of the Antipodes". I would hope our river was much nicer than the Thames
- Many suburbs in the area are named after other suburbs on the Thames - Putney, Woolwich and Henley.
- It was first discovered in 1788, not long after Artie Phillip arrived with the First Fleet.
- Greenwich was like Balmain in the early 1900's - a Cesspit - a number of heavy industries operated in the area - a Shell terminal, a quarry, an asphalt company, a brickworks - all spewing pollution into the harbour. Now it's affluent instead of effluent.
- A number of dairies operated in the area between mid 1800's to mid 1900's.
- Famous residents:
  - Antonia Kidman - sister of Nicole
  - Andrew Olle - Radio and TV presenter
- Average House price $2.7 Million.
