Run 1795 – 19th April 2021

Hare: Stopcock – Woollooware

Starters Gun

Back at Woollooware Golf Club for another run, is Woollooware becoming the new Cronulla?

Lots of talk about the NSW Dine & Discover Vouchers, who has them, who wants them, how to get them, but for those who have them, they were useless as apparently the system was down at the Golf Club.

6.30pm arrives and off goes the pack to see if the Hare found some new trails. Hopefully but not likely.

Walk Review by Moa Goa

Good walk, up and over Gannons Road, and through the back streets of Woollooware. Overall good walk. Score 8 1/2 out of 10.

PS by Trailmaster – Prescribed number of checks & on backs, good run, agreed with the score.

Visitor – Brazilian

Badges – Goon - 800 runs

Birthdays – Hellismellher - and looking not a day over her 35 years

RA's Report –

Woollooware

- means "Muddy Flat" in Aboriginal

Been here many times, so have run out of things to talk about in Woollooware. There is only so much you can talk about this place

So tonight's talk takes the form of a Community Service

As I look around the Circle, I can see a number of people who will need this service, sooner rather than later

I am talking about a Nursing Home

Woolooware Shores, just around the Bay near Taren Point

I have made enquiries for a number of you. Dundee, you will receive an email shortly

It has a heated Pool, Spa, Gym, Beauty Salon, Hairdresser, Physio, Podiatrist, on site Doctor, a games room, BBQ facilities & a Cafe

They have Wheelchair races every 2nd Sunday

And the Accommodation Bond will set you back between $696K & $2.5 Million

Weekly fees are approx. $200-

It's a lot of money for a place built on a Swamp & in an Industrial area !

If you want to buy a house in Woolooware instead & receive Home Care, it will cost you $1.7 Million.

Oh the joys of getting older! Something for most of us to look forward to in a decade or 2

Run Report

Stopcock 's Sentimental Saunter around Woolooware

When typing the report I am reminded of a Scottish friends pronunciation of Woolooware, considering that it must be of aboriginal origin they pronounced it Woo loo Warrreeeee.

Luckily we were familiar with the area and did not need to get a Taxi driver to understand where we wanted to go so arrived with just enough time to receive instructions from the hare. The area is very familiar so I really just needed to know if it is clockwise or anti clockwise - Anti clockwise was understood and we were off (initially in the direction of the car as I'd left the chalk in there).

The trail was found through the golfer's car park and out onto Gannons Rd - Dundee dodged the traffic as we crossed Denman & The Kingsway, the hare must have anticipated this and set a long on back after the junction to catch Dundee & Sir Les.

The trail then zigzagged along Caringbah Rd with On Backs and checks allowing Hellismellher and Double Bangher to lead the pack one minute and then Double Ya and Thong to take over the lead. However, they were at the front when we reached Woo Loo Warry Rd and as they live there they had already spotted an On Back and successfully allowed Dundee to pass and find the On Back.

We then headed towards Cronulla and most of the runners took in the Gunnamatta Bay foreshore - I say most, as Cold Duck sniffed out the loop and led the likes of Merkin & Sir Less on a short cut to the railway underpass. At this point the hare had decided to give the runners a chance to stretch their legs until the next on back was found on Denman Ave.

I offered the option of a short cut through the on back to Tickle & Hellismellher as the Frazers and Dundee headed north through Woo Loo Warrreee high street and looped the side streets to WoooooLooooWaaarrreeeee Rd hoping we would catch the short cutting trio of Cold Duck, Merkin & Sir Les. However, we were unaware of the shortcut these three had decided that one short cut was not enough and they had run through the Denman Ave on back and were already back at the bucket.

The On Home was then found with Andrew and Cameron intent on catching & overtaking Dundee, the old bloke held them off for a couple of hundred metres but youth prevailed - until Andrew ran out of gas with the bucket in sight, obviously the pull factor of Ginger Beer is not the same as the real stuff and Dundee whizzed past him as we entered the car park.

All in all a good run - awarded 8.5/10 by the walking Moa and backed up for the same score by the running pack

Prickette

Grenade nominated Taxing – en route apparently taken short, Taxing had a pee on the footpath walking from Woollooware Station

Prick

Grewsome nominated Cold Duck – for short cutting most of the run, and now people have barely opened their first beer, and he calling the Circle

Pig nominated Cold Duck for putting shit on my last week when I was feeling the cold

Cold Duck nominated Sir Les for also short cutting which I know as he was behind me the whole time
