Hare: Dundee – Rowers Club Cooks River

Starters Gun Birthdays

We gathered in the car park of the Rowers Club where some were discussing was this still Arncliffe or is it now Wolli Creek. Generally it was agreed that the new name of Wolli Creek came into effect when the nearby railway station was opened.

A lot of the pack were wearing their “Tigers” jacket as it was indeed a cool night after what had been a bloody cold day. Good to see people getting some use from last year’s gift.

Run Review by Grewsome

What can we say? I arrived here tonight with plenty of time to get instructions from the Hare, and he asks did I bring Cameron and Andrew. Yes but they are not staying. Apparently Dundee had something interesting to show them.

Off we set through the park and over the bridge, a lot of f’s and c’s through the locked gate of Tempe House estate. Along the back streets of Wolli Creek to Forest Road where Duck decided to do a “Dundee” and crossed the road dodging the traffic, and in doing so, got ahead of the pack. Got to be first, even if you a “dead” first. About 8k long run. A fine athlete’s run.

Scribe’s note – When asked later, Dundee thought his run was worth 2 ½ out of 10. The reasons being:

- Told everyone there would be a two for one meals offer at the restaurant – but it was only for members
- No maps for walkers or the TM – too bloody lazy & incompetent – had to act as TM himself
- Instructed the female Hash walkers where they should pick up trail – stupid, one of them was Bingo, should have instructed any males instead
- Lost trail halfway into the run & couldn’t remember where he set it only a couple of hours earlier
- Continually offered constructive advice to Duck as to how to play with the traffic & fall over gutters, etc., which left the poor bugger being nominated for Prick every week.

RA's Report –

Wolli Creek

- Was previously part of Arncliffe – named Wolli Creek in 2002, after the Railway Station opened in 2000
- Rowers club built here in 1957 – moved to Como in 1973 due to work on the Airport & surrounds
- Moved back here in 1979
- The Club has produced 6 Olympians
- Famous Building in the Suburb is “Tempe House”. I think it’s on the highway just south of the Cooks River Bridge
- It is regarded as one of “the Great Houses of Sydney”.
- Famous Humanitarian, Caroline Chisholm used the House as a Boarding School for underprivileged young woman in the mid 1800’s.
- Before that, she opened a Hostel for homeless immigrants in East Maitland. Squatting?????
- She was on the $5 Note. There is a suburb in Canberra named after her, and there are 4 schools and colleges named after her throughout Australia.
- She is in the process of being named a Saint (just like Rabbit).
- There is so much more I could talk about her but time doesn’t permit me to do this. So Google her.
- Average Unit price is $722K. There are no houses in Wolli Creek ?????

Prickette

Stopcock nominated Sniffer Dog – we decided to get here on time, but then she decided to do something to make us late and reversed into the neighbour’s car

Dundee nominated Bingo (who is currently walking due to injury) as he was trying to explain where the walkers could go, and she answered “What are telling me for”>.

Doc nominated Blondie for suggesting on the weekend that Doc drive up the RH lane to which Doc replied No – that is the wrong way

Prick

Grewsome nominated Cold Duck who is known for taking all the short cuts for just deciding to cross here when they got to West Botany Street, a very busy street.

Scribe – “Duck must have a death wish.”

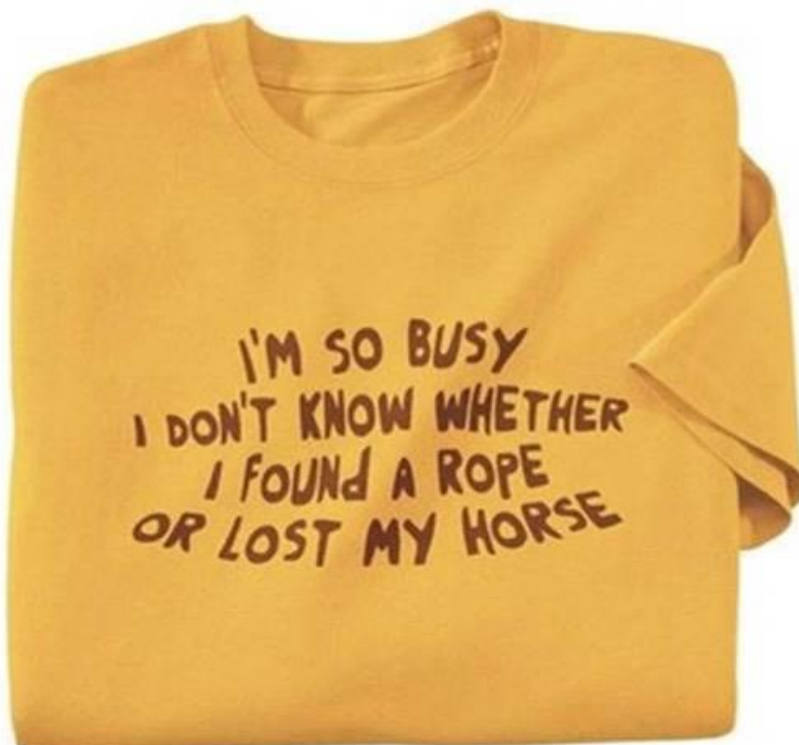

Cold Duck nominated DoubleBangher who didn't come along last week because he was tired and angry.
