Run 1571

To save Tickle the added burden of the run report, the bloke who set it & acted as trail master will endeavour to give an unbiased report of the action – best run of the year was the general opinion of the masses (or that's what I heard). Lots of bush, including Merkin & Brazilian, plenty of arrows, checks & on backs & was amazed that the front runner, who veered off trail, missing the first on back & ensuring the 3.76km run became a 4.5km run for all the runners, didn't receive a nomination for Prick of the week.

The above & a number of checks & on backs ensured the walkers kept pace with the runners for most of the run, until heart break hill, which made the City to Surf hill look like a downhill sprint. Strangely there was little complaining from the pack, which may have had something to do with their inability to breath rather than appreciation of the terrain.

Oh well another bush bash, done & dusted & thoughts in the can for next year's bash. I want to thank everyone for their attendance, which was many more than I expected & makes the four times I climbed that bloody hill worthwhile.

In appreciation,

Dundee!!

Circle Report

The RA didn't do his history homework again (many weeks running) so threw the question of what does Sutherland mean to Hannibal (who knows why, maybe expecting Hannibal to recall his notes from RA ghosts past).

Hannibal advised Sutherland means steep bloody cliffs (as evidenced by the trail tonight) – but Cannon argued (for a change) that it was the name of the first person killed by the Aborigines..... so who knows the facts/truth? Not likely to be the three 'wise men' of B2H3.

Run Report

The RR this week was Cold Duck: He immediately renamed it the 'step' report – stating it was the least of amount of running he had ever seen in his illustrious (my words not his) career in Hash.

At the chalk talk, Dundee lamented that it was a very short run. And it would have been if the runners had stopped after the first loop – where they managed to run through an on-back.

After that, it was down, down, down and then a long way up. 'Lovely run' was the sarcastic summary from the reporter. Despite all the bad mouthing, he scored the run 8.7 out of 10.

Visitors: - Brazilian & Meltdown

Athletes: - None

Birthdays: - Merkin who nominated himself because he didn't get to do the run report & missed out on another free beer (think he must have 20 birthdays a year).

New Shoes: - None

Prickette and Prick nominations

CANOOKIE – Loan Arranger got a shiver down his spine (or other place) when she started speaking French.

SNIFFER – so organised that she has already bought plots in the next door cemetery for herself and 11 other members of her closest family. So they can stay in close contact in the afterlife.

GRENADE – for her father having bought plots for his wife and his fiancée (one of those thinking puzzles....).

SLOTCARD – should be rewarded for moving her car around 3 spots, so Goon could be right next to the bucket after the run (more likely so she could be facing the right way for a quick get away to dinner).

SIR LES – Sniffer called for a show of hands for Harriettes to nominate the Bucket master to protest about the quality of the champagne (Sniffer just put her hand up to be Bucket master for next year).

DUNDEE – for kissing the run reporter (who did not flinch).

Pricks – Canookie & Sir Les

Jokes: - None there's heaps in the web site

Gispert and his band of trailblazing initiates of 1938 will be on hand, metaphorically, to welcome you back to our spiritual home, the HASH HOUSE. Yes, Motherhash's 80th Anniversary will conjunct with the unveiling of the resurrected HASH HOUSE, albeit by necessity in a different locality.
