Circle Report

Hannibal suggested Gymea Bay was founded in 1788 – must've been when Governor Artie Phillip became lost & entered Port Hacking instead of Sydney Harbour - & was named Jewel of the Shire. I think Holeproof was a resident at the time after absconding from her position as the cabin entertainment for Captain Cook in 1770. She was known by the natives of the area as Gymea Lily. It's now considered the cultural hot spot of Sydney with the Vinyl Room catering for those of a more mature entertainment attitude, i.e. bonking in the adjacent car park.

Run Report

Merkin offered his incredible oratory talent as the Run Reporter, which allowed him another free beer, mentioning, as a slightly younger chap, he attended the local Early Childhood Centre. We all stood there gobsmacked – he actually had some schooling!! He also mentioned the bush around the local baths where Sir Les took him as a young child with the promise of a bag of boiled lollies. Then he talked about there being lots of ups & downs (don't know if that was with the aforementioned or the run) & steps & hills. Accordingly & because it brought back many happy memories for him, he gave the run 9.25 out of 10.

Visitors: - None

Athletes: - None

Birthdays: - None

New Shoes: - Joker who resisted the christening by attending the circle in his sandals & the offer to drink out of other much older & dirtier boots but he will be remembered for future reference by the RA, who has excellent skills in that area.

Prickette and Prick nominations

Grenade was nominated by Dirty Weekend for driving around the streets whilst everyone else was running or something.

Taxing was nominated by Jungle Jane for, when invited to the former's abode & feeling hungry, was told to help herself to whatever was in the fridge. Unfortunately when opening said fridge it was found to be empty except for some white powder, which she declined because she had to drive that night.

Sniffer was nominated by Cold Duck for sending him deaf on the run.

Spinifex was nominated by Merkin for buying sex toys in China which I don't think would have been very satisfying for her because they're only very small toys about the size of your little finger &, I think, she'd have more fun with her little finger anyway Anyway – oh shit.

Doc was nominated by Blondie for tripping over a small bump in the road near home before the run last week & kissing the pavement with various parts of his head, thereby precluding her from experiencing Dundee's magnificent road bash last week.

Stopcock was nominated by Taxing when she asked was that Blondie up ahead he answered no because she wasn't black enough. I think he was also nominated by someone else for something else but I've forgotten.

Merkin was nominated by Rex for suggesting she was always on holidays or something.

Snickers' Serious Scientific Summations

Equipped with the knowledge of the last great ice age, which allowed the Chinese to emigrate from China to Australia – a third of the northern hemisphere was covered in a kilometre of ice & the gulf stream had stopped flowing, freezing the oceans, thereby allowing the Chinese to traverse southwards using land mass only (exposure to the sun over long periods turned their skin black but their colour breeds out after continual bonking with Caucasians) Snickers decided to investigate the origins of all species which inhabit Antarctica.

Of particular interest is the fairy penguin congregation of which a certain variety entitled the Oxford Street push, were considered early inhabitants to Australia about the same time as the Chinese migration. Unfortunately, due to their lack of female genitalia, they bred out quite quickly, leaving their mark on the highly superstitious immigrants, many of whom continued the homophobic policies, which continue to this day.

Much of his findings are too explosive to be exposed to the general public at this stage but he has promised to release certain aspects of his mission in future reports in this medium, so keep reading.

Once again Thirsty are rallying the hashers of Sydney to raise money for a worthy charity. Saturday 6th. February

Old Fitzroy Hotel, 129 Dowling St, Woolloomooloo Registration from 1pm Circle up 2pm
All hashers welcome! If you have a newsletter please add the Red Dress Run Hit the streets to raise money for the Wayside Chapel. Wayside has been assisting people on the Streets of Kings Cross for over 50 years. Under the banner of love over hate, The Wayside Chapel creates a community where there is no 'us and them' by breaking down the barriers of judgement and providing a safe place where people from all walks of life are welcome just to 'be'. So release your inner Lady In Red and help us collect funds for the great work that Wayside does.

1. Find yourself a red dress, skirt and top, sarong and T-shirt, anything red is great!
2. Come to the Old Fitzroy Hotel and register between 1pm and 2pm. The cost is $15, that's $8 bucket fee and a $7 donation to Wayside.
3. Circle up outside the Old Fitz at 2pm. You'll be given instructions and advice, collection buckets will be distributed (if you don't want to carry a bucket, that's OK, just hang around and let others collect). We will be set off by a representative from Wayside.
4. Make a spectacle in the Streets of Sydney, running with a bunch of happy people all in Red dresses.
5. Finish up at Daffodil Park, (on the Southern side of the railway line on Dowling street from the Old Fitz) for the Bucket and circle.
6. On Inn will be at the Old Fitz.
