Circle Report

Hannibal had no suggestions as to where the name Kogarah originated or whether it had any abo relationship but, it became obvious from the continued involvement from Slops, that it had something to do with alcohol manufacture in the area, being a long term requirement of his presence anywhere. So it was understood that Kogarah became the underworld pseudonym for all illegal beverage during the depression & thereafter. Thus it will be forever the eventual resting place of those, who are, have been or will be pickled into the netherworld – as God has decreed. Amen. (I got this from our esteemed Religious Advisor & use it by his acceptance).

Run Report

Carpet Burn as penance for having to live in China during its depression (it only had 6.9% growth last year, which almost reached the number set by the government 2 years ago – amazing government statistics), was enlisted as the Run Reporter for the evening Enlightening the group by suggesting Slops has run setting skills – quite amazing really considering this is the first or maybe second run he's set in 7 years - & the only reason why we all arrived back early was that we all ran through on backs. Then she suggested it wasn't all that good & he should return to his run setting skills so I have no bloody idea about the report at all. Where 9.32 out of 10 was evaluated I don't know but it must be some abacus equation.

Visitors: - Carpet Burn from the Orient & Vicki who doesn't like to drink at the circle.

Athletes: - None

Birthdays: - Grenade just a tad over 30 & Loan Arranger, who is still at a loss as to how he has one every year.

New Shoes: - Joker who resisted the christening by not attending the run but it still resonates with the RA, who likes to anoint new stuff or people or anything really.

Prickette and Prick nominations

Hannibal was nominated by Grewsome for telling him that a few years ago he went camping with the family &, when setting up the tent, realised he'd left the poles at home, thereby ensuring nobody endured denghi fever because they all had to sleep in the car.

Ringless was nominated by Dunno for something about having to walk back somewhere or something.

Bower Bird was nominated by Taxing for asking her to give her more bubbles because the circle would be boring (and we were feeling sorry for her in marrying canon).

Bower Bird was also nominated by Holeproof for something but I was getting bored as well.

Pricks – Bower Bird & Ringless

Jokes:- Big Ears told a terribly short one & Jungle Jane told one about an insomniac agnostic something or other.

Snickers' Serious Scientific Summations

So here it is dear friends, the dramatic result of Snickers' Antarctic sojourn. The ice is actually increasing in many parts of the continent, more than required to overcome the reduction in the Arctic. Despite media commentary to the contrary it looks as though we may be entering the next ice age but, this one as being different to the last great ice age, will be centred in the Southern Hemisphere.

Oh No could those climatologists & scientists be wrong again? (you may remember many of them predicted rise of the oceans & one even suggested our dams would never be full again, promoting the introduction of desalination plants, most of which have never been in operation.)

Snickers has a remedy to support his summation by paying for all those doomsayers to spend the next 20 years in Antarctica, measuring ice levels, in order to prove him wrong. I wonder whether any of them will take up the offer?

Once again Thirsty are rallying the hashers of Sydney to raise money for a worthy charity. Saturday 6th. February

Old Fitzroy Hotel, 129 Dowling St, Woolloomooloo Registration from 1pm Circle up 2pm All hashers welcome! If you have a newsletter please add the Red Dress Run Hit the streets to raise money for the Wayside Chapel. Wayside has been assisting people on the Streets of Kings Cross for over 50 years. Under the banner of love over hate, The Wayside Chapel creates a community where there is no 'us and them' by breaking down the barriers of judgement and providing a safe place where people from all walks of life are welcome just to 'be'. So release your inner Lady In Red and help us collect funds for the great work that Wayside does.

1. Find yourself a red dress, skirt and top, sarong and T-shirt, anything red is great!
2. Come to the Old Fitzroy Hotel and register between 1pm and 2pm. The cost is $15, that's $8 bucket fee and a $7 donation to Wayside.
3. Circle up outside the Old Fitz at 2pm. You'll be given instructions and advice, collection buckets will be distributed (if you don't want to carry a bucket, that's OK, just hang around and let others collect). We will be set off by a representative from Wayside.
4. Make a spectacle in the Streets of Sydney, running with a bunch of happy people all in Red dresses.
5. Finish up at Daffodil Park, (on the Southern side of the railway line on Dowling street from the Old Fitz) for the Bucket and circle.
6. On Inn will be at the Old Fitz.
